| 10. | Next, we are interested in how peoplenancial situation may have anged. | Would you say that you are |
|-----|--|----------------------------|
|     |  |                            |
|     |  |                            |
|     |  |                            |
|     |  |                            |
|     |  |                            |
|     |  |                            |
|     |  |                            |
|     |  |                            |
|     |  |                            |
|     |  |                            |
|     |  |                            |
|     |  |                            |
|     |  |                            |
|     |  |                            |
|     |  |                            |
|     |  |                            |
|     |  |                            |
|     |  |                            |
|     |  |                            |