

PUBLIC OPINION NEWS SERVICE

For Release FRIDAY, Sept. 15, 1950

PERMANENT COPY
DO NOT REMOVE FROM FILE
PUBLIC OPINION

Use of A-Bomb in Korea Divided 2 to 1 By U.S. Public in Survey

Better Educated Found Most

Sanction Its Use in General War

Public opinion poll shows that the American public is divided 2 to 1 in favor of using the atom bomb in Korea. The findings of the American Institute of Public Opinion, which conducted the survey, show that the public is more in favor of using the atom bomb in general war than in Korea. The findings also show that the public is more in favor of using the atom bomb in general war than in Korea.

Public opinion poll shows that the American public is divided 2 to 1 in favor of using the atom bomb in Korea. The findings of the American Institute of Public Opinion, which conducted the survey, show that the public is more in favor of using the atom bomb in general war than in Korea.

Public opinion poll shows that the American public is divided 2 to 1 in favor of using the atom bomb in Korea. The findings of the American Institute of Public Opinion, which conducted the survey, show that the public is more in favor of using the atom bomb in general war than in Korea.

11. Today's survey shows that the public is more in favor of using the atom bomb in general war than in Korea. The findings of the American Institute of Public Opinion, which conducted the survey, show that the public is more in favor of using the atom bomb in general war than in Korea.

Public opinion poll shows that the American public is divided 2 to 1 in favor of using the atom bomb in Korea. The findings of the American Institute of Public Opinion, which conducted the survey, show that the public is more in favor of using the atom bomb in general war than in Korea.

war. A recent survey found a vote of nearly 5-to-1 in favor of using the atom bomb in general war. The findings of the American Institute of Public Opinion, which conducted the survey, show that the public is more in favor of using the atom bomb in general war than in Korea.

Public opinion poll shows that the American public is divided 2 to 1 in favor of using the atom bomb in Korea. The findings of the American Institute of Public Opinion, which conducted the survey, show that the public is more in favor of using the atom bomb in general war than in Korea.

Public opinion poll shows that the American public is divided 2 to 1 in favor of using the atom bomb in Korea. The findings of the American Institute of Public Opinion, which conducted the survey, show that the public is more in favor of using the atom bomb in general war than in Korea.