

Appendix

Norway Interviewer Instructions

We are trying to determine how common it is for a respondent to not have an opinion (or not want to share it) but upon probing, provide an answer. We are using a series of probes to determine if the respondent has an opinion or not. The probes are as follows: